

Profiles in Healing

Surgical Excellence hits the right note with this talented Doctor.

A gifted surgeon and musician, Adam Dachman left his rock star dreams behind. The turning point came as he observed a Chicago Surgeon apply life-saving skills. It's his appreciation for the human condition and love of the human connection that has fueled Dr. Dachman's determination—making him one of the areas most skilled surgeons.

"I get immense pleasure from serving the people of Southwest Wisconsin. Patients here appreciate excellent care—and the surgical team at Upland Hills Health works as a family to provide the very best for each and every patient," explains Dr. Dachman. "We always focus on what is best for the patient."

His reputation as a skilled surgeon is verified by the hundreds of patients that have benefitted from his expertise and devotion to healthcare.

An accomplished composer and pianist, Adam's music is tempered by his personal experiences with patients and their conditions—a musical tribute to his caring touch.

Dr. Dachman is one of the many exceptional people at Upland Hills Health. Extraordinary talent dedicated to the healing and caring of others.

Dr. Dachman's practice resides on the Upland Hills Health campus. 935-2018.
